PROGRAMME:

Games are played on both natural grass and artificial turf pitches as well as in the stadium on the sports grounds of the City of Riccione and the FYA 3 Villaggi Riccione. The facilities are of course equipped with changing rooms and showers.

Furthermore, additional artificial turf and natural grass pitches are available for seven a side matches in the surroundings of Riccione.

Apart from football and beaches, the region offers lots of possibilities for excursions and recreational activities: The Acquario di Cattolica is worth a visit to discover the Adriatic's "underwater world". Europe's oldest republic, San Marino, is also waiting to be explored during your visit.
